

Hitler Was A Christian Hustlers – Harris & Hitchens

Category: Charlatans

Example A)

"If it's an Atheistic regime, how come that in the first chapter of Mein Kampf, Hitler says that he's doing God's work and executing God's will in destroying the Jewish people? How come the Fuhrer's oath, that every officer of the party and the army had to take, making Hitler into a minor god, begins with, 'I swear in the name of Almighty God, my loyalty to the Fuhrer'? How come that on the belt buckle of every Nazi soldier it said, 'God on our side'?"

Christopher Hitchens

Example B)

"Don't try that hogwash on me about Darwinism leading to Hitler – Hitler was no atheist. Have you ever read Mein Kampf? On page 1, the Fuhrer is saying he is on a divine mission from God."

Sam Harris

Food for Thought

These two charlatans are at their most disingenuous here. They pretend to think that Hitler was a Christian. At first it startled me. But, Harris' quote explains why they attempt, so desperately and pathetically, to cast Hitler as a Christian. Harris and Hitchens know how impossible it is to defend the atrocities committed by Atheists in the past century. So, instead of playing defense, they play offense.

Allow me to lay out their joint case for Hitler as a Christian. (This includes bits from videos and interviews.)

1. Chapter 1 of Mein Kampf; Hitler says he's doing God's will.
2. Hitler promoted "positive Christianity".
3. Every officer of the army and party took an oath that began with, "I swear in the name of the Almighty God, my loyalty to the Fuhrer."
4. The belt buckle of every Nazi soldier carried on it, "God on our side".

Have these two "Brights", men who enjoyed and enjoy being introduced as "public intellectuals" made their case?

Their attempt is an embarrassment. If they weren't so desperate to distract you from the 100 million souls Atheists killed in the past 100 years, they could never be persuaded to embarrass themselves like this. Allow me to address their subterfuge point by point.

1. I have read Mein Kampf (My Struggle)

Hitler does, indeed, say he's on a "divine mission" – so what? As Ralph Waldo Emerson said, "Your actions speak so loudly, that I can't hear what you are saying." Here is a direct quote from Hitler.

"The victor will never be asked if he told the truth."

And this,

"If I can accept a divine commandment, it's this one: 'Thou shalt preserve the species'! The life of the individual must not be set at too high a price. If the individual were important in the eyes of nature, nature would take care to preserve him. Amongst the millions of eggs a fly lays, very few are hatched out – and yet the race of flies thrives."

Hitler's Secret Conversations – 1941-1944
Hitler, A., Ref 32, page 116

Does that sound like a disciple of Christ or a disciple of Charles Darwin? "Thou shalt preserve the species!" Does that sound Biblical? Remember, Darwin's book was titled, On the Origin of Species, by Natural Selection.

Darwinism does not value the life of the individual, it is the species that counts. God values the souls He made in His image, so God and Adolph are not a match.

2. Hitler's "Positive Christianity"

It rejected the divinity of Jesus who Hitler described as an "Aryan Fighter". Nothing more needs to be said.

3. The Officer's Oath

Can you imagine putting forth an oath of loyalty to the Fuhrer as evidence that Hitler was a Christian? I told you it's embarrassing. I will give you a quote from Martin Bormann, Hitler's devoted secretary.

"Religion is... An organized lie [that] must be smashed. The State must remain. When I was younger, I thought it was necessary to set about [destroying religion]... with dynamite. I've since realized that there's room for a little subtlety... The young and the healthy are on our side."

"Christianity is built... upon the ignorance of men and strives to keep... people in ignorance... on the other hand, national socialism is based on scientific foundations... must always guide itself according to the newest scientific researchers."

Does Adolph sound like a Christian to you?

4. The Belt Buckle Gambit

Can you see how stupid this makes Harris and Hitchens appear?

Here is a quote from Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's propaganda minister:

"Though he was a 'fierce opponent' of the Vatican and Christianity, he forbid me to leave the church for tactical reasons."

Here is Hitler in "Table Talk" – 1941-1944
Adolph Hitler

"The dogma of Christianity gets worn away before the advances of science."

Folks, does Adolph seem concerned about belt buckles? Yet, that is the sophomoric argument our "Brights" have made.

All U.S. currency has this phrase on the back — In God We Trust. So, what does that mean? Nothing that's what. Atheists spend dollars and don't care what it says on the back of the bill they are spending. German soldiers did not care what their belt buckles said either. Atheist congressmen also spend dollars and In God We trust means nothing to them either. Sam and Christopher should have been above such claptrap, but when you are selling Atheism to college students, you don't have to concern yourself with quality arguments. Puffed up college students buy cheap T-shirts and Atheist claptrap every day, simply because they are puffed up college students.

Look back at Example B; Harris is simply dishonest. Hogwash? Hogwash? The direct line between Darwinism and Hitler's philosophy is obvious. Sam Harris knows it. But, he hopes your college student is too lazy to see if Sam is being honest. Sam is aware of every quote I've used, but Sam is a charlatan, a snake oil salesman, one who will tell and write whatever lies are required to sell what he is selling (A Godless, Atheistic philosophy of meaninglessness and despair).

Sam is a godless man who preaches constantly that morality is possible without God. Sam's morality obviously includes deceit, deception and duplicity.

Can you see why I despise what these snake oil salesmen foist on gullible audiences?

At another time, I will go into detail about another Harris deceit, the one where he maintains angrily that Stalin, Pol Pot, et al weren't Atheists. He does so because he understands that Atheism, in power, murders tens of millions. How does Sam deceive on this topic? He redefines "Atheist". Normally Sam says an Atheist is anyone who rejects the idea of God. But, when it comes to Stalin, Pol Pot, et al,

Sam changes his definition of Atheist. He requires that the butchers subscribe to the Atheist manifesto and write about it. This, his alternate definition of an Atheist, demonstrates the deceptiveness of Harris and Hitchens, two members of our Traveling Medicine Show troupe. When a high school or college student sees their deceptiveness, the students distrust all the charlatans say. That will prove useful to you.

“Conscience is a Jewish invention.”

Adolf Hitler

“Humanitarianism is the expression of stupidity and cowardice.”

Adolf Hitler

Any discussion of Atheist atrocities that have taken place in the past 100 years is unbearable for an Atheist. Stalin, Hitler, Mao and Pol Pot, all Atheists, evidenced their disregard for human life. If you are unfamiliar with their atrocities, ask yourself why. Part of the responsibility for your ignorance lies with your education. Our schools no longer teach history properly. If schools taught history properly, today's college students wouldn't be so easily deceived by Charlatans like Sam Harris and Christopher Hitchens. The remaining guilt lies at the feet of our Christian families. When did your child's education become someone else's responsibility? Providentially, God made you their parents and grandparents.

It is not too late to educate yourselves. The last 100 years of world history have driven home the truth that what we think dictates what we do. Godless men and women see others as pawns or as Hitchens used to say, mammals.

As I said earlier, I use this “Hitler was a Christian” hustle as proof that today's Atheist priests are merely charlatans, snake oil salesmen. Arm your student with facts to approach his/her professor with.
